

WOULD STOP BASKETBALL ON SUNDAY

New York, Nov. 30.—Professional basketball, which has been enjoying the greatest boom it ever had in the vicinity of Greater New York, is now seriously threatened by the blue law element. As the result of arrests made Sunday on the complaint of representatives of the Lord's Day alliance, nine persons connected with the Original Celtics and 16 who took part in a game at Tammany hall, were arrested before the game started. The Original Celtics play each Sunday afternoon and evening at Madison Square Garden and the Brooklyn Dodgers were held before Magistrate Brown in the Fifth Avenue court, Brooklyn, yesterday.

The Original Celtics play each Sunday afternoon and evening at Madison Square Garden and the Brooklyn Dodgers were held before Magistrate Brown in the Fifth Avenue court, Brooklyn, yesterday.

Edward P. Carey, one of the officials associated with the Original Celtics in the district of the Original Celtics, said that the organization was incorporated and that the receipts of the game were distributed. He said the amount collected at the gate was distributed in the form of salaries to players, ticket takers and other personnel, and the balance divided among 58 members of the club and the players.

EMPLOYED BOYS ORGANIZE

A basketball league which gives promise of supplying local basketball competition among the members of the Y. M. C. A. employed boys division was organized at the Y last night by a committee composed of Roland Harris, Harvey Lacombe, Humphrey Brennan, Thomas Spivory and Physical Director Fred A. There are to be four teams, each team playing two games each week, the first game being Monday Wednesday and Friday nights.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

BONDS FEATURED MARKET

New York, Nov. 30.—Bonds were the only stable feature of today's active but inconclusive market. The stock exchange was quiet, with only a few scattered transactions. The bond market was more active, with a number of issues being sold. The market was generally steady, with a few fluctuations in price.
